Project Summary

- Client: Owner of an online game localization company in Spain
- Service: Spanish into English translation
- Type: Privacy Policy and Cookies Policy
- Discipline: Law/Technology
- Volume: 3,000 words

Challenges

- Accuracy of legal translation for legal compliance
- Translation of various technical terminology

Solutions

- Use of specialized legal knowledge
- Research and application of appropriate technical terminology
- Application of relevant tone and register
- In-depth research of GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) Legal text

Results

The client was impressed with the end resulting quality of the translation and looked forward to continue working with India at Iprout Translations for future translation needs. Not only was he able to immediately put the English version of the privacy and cookies policies to use on his company website, he also achieved his goal of obtaining GDPR compliant policy documents for his English-speaking clients and global connections.
